Legacy

Impact future leaders in amazing places as you teach at a university campus, K-12 school, or community center. Teams invest meaningfully on campuses and in local communities overseas.

Master's+ ELIC partners with accredited universities to offer tuition discounts of up to 57% off of select master's and PhD programs while you teach on a Legacy Team.

WHY ENGLISH EDUCATION?

English is the global language for commerce, education, and diplomacy. Teaching English at the invitation of governments and universities opens a door into the hearts and minds of future leaders around the world.
